

Chairs & Seating

Your own little haven where you can sit undisturbed and listen to an audio book or a piece of music or just enjoy the silence. And you don't disturb anyone! Our new Luna listening furniture is not just functional, but also adds an exciting design element to the library environment. Aida, Centomila and Air from the Italian designer Magis are other new arrivals worth getting to know.

Armchair for active listening or relaxation

Your own private space where you will be undisturbed. Listen to a talking book or a piece of music – or just enjoy the silence. No need for headphones – the sound is just there! The Sound Seat speaks for itself, "Please do not disturb!".

Luna

Comfortable armchair with built-in loudspeakers. Suitable for most environments: listen to a talking book in the library; the latest CD in the music store; contemplate at the office or rest at the airport.

Ready for connection to a music equipment. The loudspeakers can be reached through the bottom panel of the frame (unturnable).
